RE: Fisher, Christian Blake
CR 09-00181-1

2

I, Christopher Taylor, a Probation Officer employed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, solemnly affirm and declare, under penalty of perjury, that to the best of my information and belief, the facts set forth in this affidavit are true and correct. The factual affirmations made below are based on my personal knowledge, on official records or documents generated and maintained by my agency in the course of performing its functions, on official records or documents generated and maintained by other government agents or agencies in the course of performing their functions, or on information provided to me orally or electronically by employees or agents of other public agencies (information developed or acquired in the course of performing official agency functions).

Charge Number Violation

One There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated mandatory condition number one that the offender shall not commit another federal state or local crime.

On January 9, 2012, in Travis County, Texas, the offender was arrested by the County Sheriff's Department. On that date, Christian Fisher was arguing with his fiancé, Erin Eisberg. Ms. Eisberg and Christian Fisher began to argue about their relationship. At this point, Christian Fisher threw an unidentified object at Ms. Eisberg causing a half inch laceration to her head and bleeding. The Travis County Sheriff's Department responded and arrested Christian Fisher on Assault with Injury - Family Violence (a Class a Misdemeanor). An emergency Protective Order was put in place and the offender remains in jail with the next court appearance in Travis County, Texas on January 20, 2012.

Evidence to support this charge is the Travis County sheriff's Office arrest report number 12-709.

On October 17, 2011, the Western District of Texas accepted a transfer of probation supervision. However, as a result of the recent arrest and lack of a residence, the Western District of Texas will be closing the term of supervision.

Based on the foregoing, there is probable cause to believe that Christian Blake Fisher violated the conditions of his probation. Therefore, I ask the Court to issue a no bail warrant for his arrest.

Respectfully submitted,

Christopher Taylor
U S Probation Officer
